Use the pyarrow.FileSystem instead. Use arrow.file("") to open files, .arrow.HadoopFileSystem to open files in hadoop. arrow.FileSystem can accept many of the same op - name - arguments as arrow.HadoopFileSystem, but the arguments are translated into files on the hdfs where they are read. For more details, see   . A: I just use the updated arrow version. pip install --upgrade arrow and just need to restart my docker container. Q: Excel VBA - Worksheet_change not working in a Worksheet_Calculate event I have the following code to make a cell in a worksheet blue when another cell in that same worksheet changes. When I run the code it works fine, but when I put it inside a worksheet_calculate event it doesn't work. This is my code Private Sub Worksheet_Calculate() Dim targetCell As Range, targetRange As Range Set targetRange = Worksheets("Criteria").Range("B1") For Each targetCell In Worksheets("Criteria").Range("B1") If targetCell.Value = "" Then Exit For targetCell.Interior.ColorIndex = 3 End Sub I'm not sure if this code needs to be changed at all, so if you guys have any advice to suggest I would really appreciate it. Thanks in advance! Try changing the loop to this: For Each targetCell In targetRange Edit: Try using this: If Not targetRange Is Nothing Then targetRange.Interior.ColorIndex = 3 End If Edit 2: Add in this line of code at the top of the module: Public WithEvents targetRange As Range Validity and reliability of three in-office measurement devices for peri-implant keratinized mucosa. To assess the validity and reliability of three peri-im

Download and install the latest version of Groove Studio - Dance Classes app on your Windows PC. Groove Studio for PC is available for Windows 10/8/7 and Mac laptops. Groove Studio offers a set of 32 body workout dance classes. Each class has two exercises. Each exercise is aimed at working out one muscle or muscle-antagonist. There is also a workout class for the back, chest and legs. Each class has a timer, and you can also switch between them or complete all classes in one session. The classroom includes several tools, including a virtual trainer that tracks your progress as you practice. fffad4f19a
