Ramprasad is a recent college graduate who finds work with a fastidious man, Bhavani Shankara, who believes that a man should earn more money than a woman. He also has a prejudice against women who do not work. He demands that Ramprasad work more than his wife. Ramprasad and his wife want to have children, but they do not have the time to do so. To somehow compensate for this, they decide to have a child through artificial insemination at a clinic.
