Version: 1.5.1 Categories: Games Size: 7.4 MB Description: The game is a sequel to the famous puzzle game Geometry Dash. The game is set in a cityscape where you have to move through the levels in order to collect the coins and safety. It's not similar in concept to Geometry Dash since it has a different gameplay. In this game the objective is to collect all coins and reach the end of the level. The game is similar to iPhone game Flow Free. That is, it has the same objective and gameplay. The difference is that this game contains many more levels, much more various obstacles, and different controls. What's New in the?

Simple Calculator app intended for personal use. It offers basic functions like addition, subtraction, multiplication, division, and has an automatic calculator mode. Its most interesting feature is automatic display of fractions without using the fraction slider and division of two numbers is also supported. Input possible from the numpad One particular aspect you notice right from the start is portability, because you're not taken through a setup process to make the application work. As such, it's possible to carry it around on a thumb drive as your personal calculator, without having to worry about the health status of the target PC, because registry entries are not altered in the process. Leaves much to be desired Unfortunately, you're only able to perform basic operations, such as adding, subtracting, multiplying, dividing, and percentage, with no built-in scientific mode. What's more, there's no memory slot to save values for later processing, so calculus is only temporary and needs to be composed of two values and an operator. Without a built-in band, results need to be manually copied from the display field, without an option to save some time and automatically send them to clipboard. In case it's packed with just the right tools for you, assigning a hotkey command to its shortcut allows you to launch it regardless of your location. A few last words taking everything into consideration, we can state that Tietjen Calculator is pretty underprepared, and feels a little rough around the edges overall. You can only perform basic calculus, with no memory slot for temporary saving of values. Truth be told, it can't even match the default correspondent found in Windows.Exclusive Details Chris Brown and Rihanna are totally DTF -- but the exes are also PERFECT for each other. Chris and RiRi spent some quality time together at the Cannes Film Festival, and it's like they're back in their new romance... so in-love and romance-free. Rihanna and Chris spent time together after she presented a film at the festival -- and it sounds like they stayed out all night after the event. Witnesses tell TMZ... they were spotted on the terrace of a hotel at 4:30 AM -- chatting and laughing. The singers looked like they were straight out of a movie -- RiRi in an edgy white outfit and Chris in a black jacket and black pants.
