'Airbus A319 (Like It) - If you are a pilot in a 100-seat local airport, do you really think you can do a detailed, perfect forecast every time?. 34:19 We reached our destination a few hours later, the rest stop on the New Jersey Turnpike for the night. After paying for our room and checking in, the manager gave me a key to the truck and wished me good night. I opened the door of the truck and looked around. The interior was sparse, hardly what I expected a truck stop would be like. It was hard to picture a man of my stature sitting alone in the middle of the night with not even a person to greet him as he came into the restroom. There were two televisions on the far wall, a lamp with a string, and a small refrigerator with three or four items on it. Another close to the door was a small table. On that table was an inconspicuous wire basket with the usual motel product, mini honeybees and a light bulb. On the table were stacked an airline-sized package of Kleenex, a box of baking soda, a box of Crisco shortening, and a copy of the New York Times. As I continued to wander the truck, I was struck by what I
